

All Colours United

In the heart of Europe, two stunning countries lay,
Our sizes may be different, but colours are the same.
United by the values of the European Union, equality and freedom, justice and democracy.

France and Croatia, a tale of two lands,
Where history and beauty forever stand,
From Paris streets to Dubrovnik shore,
In harmony forever more,
We stare at the same stars,
connecting our hearts.

From the coasts of the Atlantic to the Adriatic sea,
Connected with so much more than just geography.

From Paris streets to Dubrovnik shore,
In harmony forever more,
Sharing the same sky...

In harmony forever more,
We stare at the same stars,
connecting our hearts.

Bridge (rap):

Nous partageons les mêmes passions d'un stade à un autre le sport unit nos pays avec respect, nos icones
Mbappé, Modrić représentent nos valeurs.
Iz daleke Francuske, grada Marvežola,
Došli su nam oni, puna ih je škola.
Prijatelji naši stižu izdaleka, u srcu Zagorja Bedekovčina čeka!
